ORDER GRANTING MOTION FOR COSTS

This cause came before the Court on Appellee's Motion for Costs for Care of Horse, filed on May 27, 2005. Appellee moves the Court to enter an awarding a total of $1,712.33 for costs incurred in the care of the horse, which was the subject of the appeal. After considering the arguments of counsel at hearing and being otherwise fully advised on the merits, the Court finds as follows:

Appellee is entitled to be reimbursed for the costs incurred in the care of the horse from November 16, 2004 through April 12, 2005, amounting to $1,712.33.

It is therefore ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the Motion for Costs for Care of Horse is GRANTED.

DONE and ORDERED this April 22, 2005.
